

Media monopoly is a threat to democracy. Please encourage diversity, creativity and free thinking by limiting the number of television and radio stations one company can own.